

JUDGE MEMORIAL CAREER DAY SPEAKERS

Author & Business Owner _____

AMANDA MOXLEY '93

Amanda Moxley is a best selling author and an award-winning business owner featured in magazines and TV, and a sought-after expert for TV and print media. She coaches male and female entrepreneurs how to create profitable, playful and portable businesses.

Engineer

---

MATTHEW ROBLEX '87

Is a principal of McNeill Engineering and the head of structural engineering. He has consulted with national news outlets over the years to provide his insight and expertise for events as recent as the Francis Scott Key bridge collapse in Baltimore.

Also known as the MK Bandit, Matthew Roblez is an American Professional Wrestling ring announcer/backstage personality and pro wrestling commentator

Independent Film Maker

---

LUKE HRISTOU '06

Luke Hristou is an Independent Film maker who recently debuted his first pilot “The Real Rat,, a down to earth story about a “funky,, aging athlete, whose life has always been: simpler in the gym. Inspired by his own love of basketball and the basketball culture in Spokane, Luke is also the host of “The Real Rat Podcast,, and is currently working on the next installment of “The Real Rat.,,